Another Bureau Of Design

Another bureau of design is a Melbourne-based studio working across furniture, lighting and object design. The studio utilises both industrial and handmade production techniques to create design objects informed by the aesthetics of the built environment.

With a focus on working with wood, metal and clay, Designer Abdé Nouamani explores the inherent qualities of these materials to create functional forms that are at once curious and familiar.

Seating

Corner Bench

Based on the simple lines traced by children when asked to draw a house, the Corner Collection is a series of seats reminiscent of gable roofed houses.

The Corner Bench is the longest iteration of the form.

Made exclusively for Movimento.

Open Edition.
