Artist

Costantino Gucci

Costantino Gucci, born in Florence in 1992, lives and works in Milan. After studying Product Design at Central Saint Martins in London, he developed a practice that moves between design and sculpture. His research explores reflection both as a material condition and as a metaphor, engaging with themes of perception, identity, and illusion through unstable, ever-shifting surfaces. Mirrors and glass become living organisms that respond to light and space, transforming each encounter into a singular, unrepeatable experience. At the heart of his work is the viewer: the artwork does not exist in isolation, but takes shape through its relationship with the observer, constantly redefining the space that hosts it. His work has been featured in contexts of artistic research and contemporary design, and now enters, for the first time, a solo exhibition that reveals the formal and conceptual universe behind his practice.

Mirror

Portal Solaris

Portal Solaris is an oval-shaped mirror, featuring soft gradient in golden tones that creates a luminous effect. The rippled glass surface distorts the reflection, adding a sense of depth and fluid motion. The interplay between the observer and the material transforms each reflection into a dynamic image, evoking a blurred boundary between reality and perception.
