Artist

Juliana Maurer

Juliana Maurer is a multidisciplinary artist and designer driven by a curiosity for unconventional interactions with materials. Her approach is a mixture of controlled and uncontrolled processes to create a space for unexpected outcomes. Always with the focus on the material as the main actor and guide. She combs her surroundings, nature and everyday life in order to find a surprising exchange between surfaces, materiality and shape.

Her material explorations are implemented in graphics, objects, material research as well as in sculptures, photography and spatial installations.
