Seating

Crooked Lounge Chair

The Crooked Lounge Chair is part of the Crooked Collection, an ongoing series of asymmetric and angular furniture pieces. This collection is based on a very simple concept: the absence of 90° angles and symmetries. Every piece is made to order, using hand glued timber from selected oak slabs, planed and finished with hard wax oil. By concealing all the joins, the design remains as pure as possible. The use of solid oak gives a very premium finish and provides a warm contrast to the angular lines. All pieces are available in natural solid oak, walnut and white lacquered wood.

Made exclusively for Movimento.
Open Edition.
