Artist

Neemesi

Neemesi is an atelier born from an urgent, almost instinctive desire to explore new artistic expressions, beyond convention, beyond repetition. We believe in art as a transformative force, a living language capable of provoking thought, stirring emotion, and inspiring conscious change.

We work intimately with natural stones, allowing their imperfections, textures, and silent histories to guide us. What has been forgotten, discarded, or weathered by time becomes fertile ground for creation. Each piece is one of a kind, a poetic collaboration between the artist's gesture and the memory held within the matter itself. Ours is a practice rooted in the tangible world, yet always reaching toward the sublime.

We live in the real, but we aspire to the extraordinary.

Neemesi believes objects have the power to transform us.
